

CASE STUDY

INTERNATIONAL ISLAMIC UNIVERSITY

Project Description

At the International Islamic University Malaysia, Hisense GoBoard Live interactive displays have been deployed to enhance collaboration and enrich the learning experience across teaching environments. The advanced touch-enabled technology supports dynamic presentations, real-time annotation and seamless content sharing, encouraging greater student engagement and interaction. Designed for modern education settings, the GoBoard Live solution delivers intuitive performance and reliable operation, supporting digitally enabled, collaborative learning.

Project details

Project Name	International Islamic University
Project Date	November 2025
Application Scenarios	Education
Location	Malaysia
Product Installed	86" GoBoard Live