

CASE STUDY

THE OLD COMMODORE HOTEL

Project Description

A little history for context. The Old Commodore was first built in 1854 by John Blue, son of the legendary ferryman Billy Blue. Hisense Commercial Displays of various sizes upstairs and downstairs keep guests informed and entertained. Everything is driven by a central Q-SYS control system

Project details

Project Name	The Old Commodore Hotel
Project Date	January 2026
Application Scenarios	Entertainment
Location	Australia
Product Installed	43DM66D x2, 50GM50D x3, 100DM66E x4, 65DM66D x3